

Latino Advisory Board

Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office

Reggie Torres

Board Member

Regino Torres Jr. has served as a Supervising Deputy Probation Officer with the Los Angeles County Probation Department since 2011, bringing more than 27 years of dedicated public service to the County. He is also the President of the Los Angeles County Probation Supervisors Association, BU Lodge 702.

An Army combat veteran, Torres credits his military service with shaping his leadership style and lifelong commitment to integrity, fairness, and accountability. Widely respected as an effective supervisor and advocate, he has been deeply engaged in labor representation throughout his career. He is active in numerous professional and advocacy organizations, including FOP, CCLEA, SCOPO, APPA, LACAAEA, Latino Caucus, HAPCOA, and the CAFOP Political Action Committee.

Torres has cultivated strong relationships with legislators and policymakers in Sacramento and Washington, D.C., earning recognition for his extensive political network and principled advocacy. He is committed to advancing justice reform, protecting the interests of his members, and building collaborative partnerships between labor, department leadership, and the broader community to strengthen public safety.
