Alleged Burglar Charged After Being Shot by Redondo Beach Resident

A Redondo Beach man that was shot by a resident after allegedly trying to steal a motorcycle has been charged with attempted theft, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced today.

Laurencio Gamboa Jr. (dob 9/30/82) faces one count of attempted grand theft of personal property in case YA093639.

Gamboa entered a not guilty plea to the charge late yesterday and is due back on Feb. 4 in Department 50 of the Foltz Criminal Justice Center to set a date for a preliminary hearing.

Gamboa was shot in the leg on Jan. 19 by a resident on the 2000 block of Nelson Avenue who said the defendant broke into his garage and attempted to steal a motorcycle stored there by a friend, prosecutors said. His injuries were not life threatening.

The defendant is facing 30 months in state prison if convicted as charged. Bail is set at $30,000.

The case remains under investigation by the Redondo Beach Police Department.
