Man Receives 50-Year Prison Term For Sexually Assaulting Three Women

A 24-year-old man was sentenced today to 50 years in state prison for attacking three women in 2012, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Allen Phillip Crews also was ordered by Los Angeles County Superior Court Judge Richard Kemalyan to register as a sex offender for the rest of his life.

Crews pleaded no contest earlier this month to one count each of kidnapping, sexual penetration by a foreign object and assault with intent to commit rape and kidnapping. He also pleaded to two counts each of assault by means likely to produce great bodily injury and forcible rape.

Deputy District Attorney Jane Creighton of the Sex Crimes Division said Crews assaulted two women near 85th Street and Western Avenue on June 15, 2012. He approached a 50-year-old woman in an alley with a fake gun and forcibly raped her.

Crews fled that location and came upon a 35-year-old woman who he attacked, the prosecutor said. He knocked her teeth out during his attempt to remove her clothing. That victim fought back and he ran away.

Three days later, Crews beat and raped a 50-year-old woman at a bus stop. Crews was arrested after a Los Angeles police officer saw an injured and unconscious woman on a bus bench and spotted a man fleeing the scene.

The Los Angeles Police Department investigated the case.
