La Mirada Woman Charged with Attempted Murder, Burglary

A 22-year-old woman accused of breaking into her ex-boyfriend's home and shooting him in the face was charged yesterday, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Jerica Mae Caballes (dob 10/29/92) of La Mirada has been charged with two felony counts: attempted murder and first-degree burglary, person present, in case KA109378.

The felony complaint includes a special allegation that the defendant personally and intentionally discharged a firearm, which caused great bodily injury.

Caballes was scheduled to be arraigned yesterday, but the court appearance was continued to April 21 in Department F of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Pomona Branch.

The defendant is currently being held on $2 million bail.

On March 26, prosecutors said Caballes reportedly broke into her ex-boyfriend's Pomona apartment and shot him in the face.

The next day, police arrested the defendant in connection with the shooting.

If convicted as charged, Caballes faces a maximum sentence of 50 years to life in state prison.

The case is being investigated by the Pomona Police Department.
