Woman Found Guilty of Shooting Death of Boyfriend in Littlerock

A 43-year-old woman was found guilty today of killing her boyfriend in 2015 by shooting him in the head six times, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

A jury found Ana Rosenda Mancio aka Ana Delgado (dob 11/3/74) of Littlerock guilty of first-degree murder.

Case MA069145 was tried by Deputy District Attorneys Scott Yang and David Delgado.

Sentencing is scheduled on July 6 in Department A-18 of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Antelope Valley Branch. Mancio faces 26 years to life in state prison.

On April 28, 2015, the defendant shot and killed Miguel Romero, 46, while he delivered rolls of corn for animals in Littlerock, the prosecutors said. After the killing, Mancio fled the country through Mexico to Guatemala by claiming a family emergency, according to evidence presented in court.

The defendant returned to the United States six months later through Florida, the prosecutors added.

The case was investigated by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.
