Man Sentenced for Domestic Violence Murder in Burbank

A Hesperia man was sentenced yesterday to 26 years to life in state prison for stabbing his girlfriend to death inside a Burbank home in 2015, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Fernanda Barreto said Timothy Aguilar Andrade, 32, was found guilty last month of one count of first-degree murder with a knife-use allegation in case GA096966.

On Aug. 23, 2015, Andrade killed Brandi Carrasco, 35, by stabbing her in the neck inside a bedroom of a house located in the 1900 block of Richard Street where they were both staying, prosecutors said.

The case was investigated by the Burbank Police Department.
