Transients Charged with Woman's Murder in Hollywood

Three transients were charged today in the stabbing death of a woman who took their photo outside the Hollywood & Highland Center then declined to give them money, the District Attorney's Office announced.

Prosecutors charged Dustin James Kinnear, 26 (dob 2-16-87), with one count of murder with personal use of a knife allegation. Jason Joel Wolstone, 33 (dob 3-13-80), was charged with one count of assault by means likely to produce great bodily injury and two counts of accessory after the fact. Brian Joseph Widdows, 34 (dob 6-9-79), was charged with two counts of accessory after the fact.

The three, charged in case BA412660, are scheduled to be arraigned later this afternoon at the Foltz Criminal Justice Center, Department 30.

The victim, Christina Calderon, was stabbed to death shortly after 8 p.m. Tuesday along Hollywood Boulevard after she and a friend took cellphone pictures of three men holding signs, Los Angeles Police Department officials said.

Kinnear allegedly fatally stabbed the victim after she refused to give the trio $1, police said.

Prosecutors will ask that bail be set at $1 million for Kinnear, and $500,000 each for Wolstone and Widdows.
