Chicago Bulls Player Pleads in DUI Case

Chicago Bulls forward Ronnie Brewer pleaded no contest today to a misdemeanor DUI charge, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Stephanie Miyata said Ronald Charles Brewer Jr., 29, entered the plea through an attorney, for driving with a .08 percent blood alcohol content or higher.

He also admitted the allegation that his concentration of blood alcohol was more than 0.15 percent by weight.

Los Angeles County Superior Court Judge Edward Moreton of the Airport Branch sentenced Brewer to three years summary probation, three months of alcohol abuse classes and ordered him to attend 10 Alcoholics Anonymous meetings.

He was also ordered to pay $390 in fines.

The basketball player was arrested after a traffic stop on Feb. 19 near Wilshire Boulevard and Rodeo Drive in Beverly Hills.

The case was investigated by the Beverly Hills Police Department.
