“Pretty Little Liars” Actor Sentenced for Pointing Gun at Neighbor

An actor with a recurring role on the television show “Pretty Little Liars” was sentenced today to 180 days in jail for pointing a gun at a neighbor during a dispute, the Los Angeles County District Attorney’s Office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Matthew Vodnoy said Brandon William Jones, 29, of North Hills today pleaded no contest to one misdemeanor count of assault with a firearm in case PA086095.

Jones also was immediately sentenced to three years summary probation, 30 days of community labor and 26 anger management classes.

On Oct. 30, 2015, Jones exhibited a handgun during a dispute with a neighbor at his home, the prosecutor said. The defendant also pointed a handgun at a neighbor during a different neighborhood dispute on March 24, 2016, the prosecutor added.

The case was investigated by the Los Angeles Police Department, Devonshire Station.
