Twelve Alleged Gang Members Indicted in Residential Burglary Conspiracy Covering Four Counties

Ten men and two women have been indicted for their alleged role in a residential burglary ring that encompassed Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Ventura and Orange counties, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced today.

A total of four indictments naming the 12 defendants were unsealed yesterday in Department 100 of the Foltz Criminal Justice Center. The defendants, all alleged members or associates of the East Coast Crips, pleaded not guilty to the charges. They are due back on Sept. 1 for a pretrial conference.

The indictments link the defendants to 37 residential burglaries and three attempted residential burglaries. In some cases, homeowners were present during the alleged burglaries, prosecutors said. The burglars are suspected of ransacking houses looking for jewelry, gold, money, and safes, prosecutors added.

The assigned prosecutor is Deputy District Attorney Mark Inaba of the Organized Crime Division.

All four cases include dozens of felony counts that include charges of conspiracy to commit residential burglary, burglary and attempted burglary.
