D.A. Lacey Announces Public Comment Process on Hubbart's Proposed Release to Los Angeles County

District Attorney Jackie Lacey announced today that her office will serve as the point of contact for all written public comments regarding the proposed release of serial rapist Christopher Hubbart to Lake Los Angeles.

"Our prosecutor attending today's hearing in San Jose urged the judge to appoint our office as the contact so that our residents have ample opportunity to share their feelings on locating Hubbart in Lake Los Angeles," Lacey said.

Santa Clara County Judge Gilbert Brown said Hubbart, who admitted raping approximately 40 women between 1971 and 1982, will tentatively be housed at 17132 Laredo Vista. The residence has a Palmdale mailing address, but the house is actually located in the community of Lake Los Angeles.

The public has until Nov. 29 to submit written public comments to Judge Brown by emailing the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office at HubbartLASafetyTaskForce@da.lacounty.gov, or by writing to:

Hubbart L.A. Safety Task Force
c/o District Attorney's Office Sex Crimes Division
320 West Temple Street, Room 777
Los Angeles, CA 90012

On Dec. 4, Judge Brown will hold a public hearing in San Jose on Hubbart's proposed residence. Anyone wishing to address Judge Brown directly will be allowed to speak at the hearing in Santa Clara County Court, Department 32, 190 W. Hedding Street, Fourth Floor.

Lacey said her prosecutors will deliver all written comments to the Santa Clara County Court prior to the Dec. 4 public hearing.

Lacey said that once Judge Brown finalizes the 62-year-old's location, the D.A.'s Office will work diligently with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department and other law enforcement partners to ensure Hubbart will be closely monitored, as required by law.

"Our priority is to safeguard our residents and make certain Hubbart is obeying all the conditions of his release," Lacey said.
