Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputy Charged With Obstructing Police Officer

A Los Angeles County sheriff's deputy has been charged with interfering with a crime that occurred last October, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced today.

Bradley Scott Dietze (dob 8/21/74) was charged in case 9AM03699 with one misdemeanor count of resisting, delaying or obstructing a peace officer. The case was filed for warrant on Oct. 25.

Dietze is expected to be arraigned on Dec. 23 in Los Angeles County Superior Court, Alhambra Branch.

Deputy District Attorney Deann Rivard of the Justice System Integrity Division is prosecuting the case.

On Oct. 29, 2018, Dietze allegedly lied to a Los Angeles Police Department officer who was investigating whether a marijuana distribution warehouse was being robbed in downtown Los Angeles.

If convicted as charged, Dietze faces a possible maximum sentence of one year in county jail.

The case remains under investigation by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department's Internal Criminal Investigations Bureau.
