Man Convicted of Vandalism after Santa Fe Springs Standoff

A man accused of invading a home, barricading himself inside, which resulted in extensive damage to the dwelling was sentenced today, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Paul Barragan (dob 3/20/94) of Norwalk pleaded no contest to one felony count of felony vandalism over $400 damage in case VA137445.

Los Angeles County Superior Court Judge Peter Espinoza immediately sentenced Barragan to two years in state prison to be served in county jail. Additionally, the judge ordered Barragan to pay restitution in the amount of $5,000 to the victimized homeowner.

Prosecutors said in the early morning of Oct. 27, Barragan entered a Santa Fe Springs home without permission and barricaded himself in a room.

Authorities were called and ordered Barragan to get out of the house. At some point, Barragan tried to flee, but was eventually arrested by police.

The homeowner later notified authorities there was damage in the home as a result of Barragan barricading himself.

The case was investigated by the Whittier Police Department.
