

LGBTQ+ ADVISORY BOARD

Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office

Amber Whittington, Activist

Board Member

Amber Whittington, also known as AmbersCloset, is an Activist, Social Influencer, and Host, whose videos range from Motivational/Self Growth Content, LGBTQ+, Food, Fashion, Politics and more. She started her channel to help others that might be struggling with their identity and to break stereotypes. She believes in changing the world by changing within. Her goal is to Empower everyone through positivity, self-love, and self-confidence; so they feel inspired to show their true authentic self to the world and to show up as the best versions of themselves.

She first started her career as a marketing executive and business consultant and has worked with some of the biggest corporations. She uses her knowledge from both industries to consult LGBTQ+ & POC influencers to create mutual beneficial agreements between the influencers and big brands/corporations. She wants to make a big impact in her communities by creating relatable content online and doing work offline by sitting on the board of some of the most impactful organizations such as LAMBDA Legal & West Hollywood City Council Commission.
