

Crime Victims Advisory Board

Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office

Ana Estevez

Board Member

Ana Estevez, a United States Army veteran and educator of over 28 years, is a passionate advocate for children, victims of crime, and child safety, currently serving as an Executive Director with the Los Angeles Unified School District.

Honored as the 2019 California Woman of the Year by the State Assembly and recognized as a 2024 Remarkable Woman by Nexstar, she has appeared on the Dr. Phil Show, Good Day LA, and testified before the California Senate and Assembly Judiciary Committees. She has played a pivotal role in advancing child safety legislation at both the state and federal levels, most recently with the passage of Senate Bill 331 – Piqui's Law, and, most meaningfully, she is known as Piqui's momma.
