

Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office Asian American & Pacific Islander Advisory Board

Lee Orquiola

Board Member

Lee Orquiola is the Deputy-In-Charge of the Long Beach Juvenile Office. Before this role, he led the newly created Complex Litigation Unit. Prior to entering management, his assignments included the Justice System Integrity Division, the Gang Homicide Division, Central Trials, as well as the Compton and Airport Branch Offices. Lee has served as a Deputy District Attorney for 20 years and is a highly experienced trial attorney.

He was recently recognized by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors for his advocacy on behalf of victim-survivors in juvenile court. Lee is also deeply committed to community service, frequently volunteering at the LA Food Bank and serving as a Judge in Mock Trial competitions for middle school, high school, and law school students. He has also been a featured speaker at his college, discussing pathways to a career in prosecution. As one of the few Filipino American prosecutors in the Office, he remains dedicated to addressing the needs and concerns of the AAPI community.
