Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office

Allyson Ostrowski

Board Member

Allyson Ostrowski is a seasoned trial attorney at ACTS Law, where she focuses her civil practice on catastrophic personal injury and wrongful death cases. Before transitioning to civil litigation, Allyson spent nearly 15 years as a Los Angeles County Deputy District Attorney, honing her courtroom skills and building a reputation as a fierce and ethical advocate.

In her civil practice, Allyson remains deeply committed to helping people who have been injured through no fault of their own. She brings the same prosecutorial intensity to her plaintiff work, leaving no stone unturned in investigating cases, understanding her clients' pain, and fighting to secure justice. Allyson takes pride in truly getting to know her clients and telling their stories in a way that resonates with juries.

A proud Los Angeles native, Allyson earned her law degree from Pepperdine University School of Law, graduating cum laude and gaining induction into the Order of the Barristers. She holds dual Bachelor of Arts degrees in Communications and Sociology from Boston College, where she graduated cum laude as a Scholar of the College and a member of the Order of the Cross and Crown.
