

WOMEN'S ADVISORY BOARD

Riddhi Patel

Board Member

Riddhi Patel is a first-year law student at Berkeley Law with a strong focus on privacy law and women's rights. As an undergraduate at UCLA, she founded LeGal, a women in law and politics organization that has since expanded to four universities and continues to grow.

Riddhi currently serves on the Women's Advisory Committee for the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office, where she advocates for equity and systemic reform. She is passionate about building inclusive legal frameworks that protect individual freedoms and empower marginalized communities.

