

Latine Advisory Board

Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office

Jayce Baron

Board Member

Jayce Baron is an Afro-Latinx globally recognized Award-Winning Screenwriter and Author, Executive Producer, Director, Political Figure, and Advocate for the Black and Brown LGBTQ+ community. Founder of jBaron Creative House, he has an organic desire to bring a conscious conversation to the community through endless mediums. He has merged his entertainment career and natural civil duty to humanity for over a decade from contributing at NBC to an independent podcast he hosted and produced garnering over half a million streams and listened to in over 50 countries worldwide.

In early 2022, Jayce Executively Produced and Directed the riveting documentary, BEYOND ED BUCK, alongside Emmy Award Winning FX Pose star, Hailie Sahar, which premiered on AMC's streaming platform ALLBLK. Beyond Ed Buck went on to be recognized in several national and international film festivals and screenings, taking home several awards. He has been featured and worked with entities such as Forbes, The City of LA, Billboard Magazine, The Hollywood Reporter, FOX, GLAAD, Human Rights Campaign, Gilead, and many more. Over the years, Jayce has received public recognition from several predominant political figures from cities, counties, and states across the US for his contribution to society.

In 2016, Jayce was invited to The Capital to continue to bring awareness to sexual assault and was part of passing bill SB816 revoking the statute of limitation on rape charges in the state of California. He was named one of the 16 Heroes alongside Joe Biden, Ashley Judd, and others in 2016. He currently works in tandem as an Advisory Board Member with Yale University's Psychology Department studying cases of male sexual assault survivors. His advocacy trickled into media as he Executively Produced, THE LIFTED, an action drama film tackling the realities of sexual assault occurrences in rideshare services. The film won the John Singleton Embrace Award presented by the City of Los Angeles.

In February 2024, Jayce Baron was unanimously voted into his Neighborhood Council through the City of Los Angeles. He currently Co-Chairs the Diversity, Equality, & Inclusion Committee and is a standing member of the Government Relations Committee.
