

WOMEN'S ADVISORY BOARD

Jane Dorotik

Board Member

Jane Dorotik is an R.N. and healthcare professional who worked for many years in Community Mental Health Administration. She had been incarcerated for 20 years on a wrongful conviction, and thanks to the amazing work by attorneys who are now the Los Angeles Innocence Project her conviction was overturned in May 2022.

She is a Coordinating leader of the California Coalition for Women Prisoners (CCWP), A Policy Advisor for the Los Angeles Innocence Project, a founding member of the UC Sentencing Project, a current member of the Board of Directors of Californians United for a Responsible Budget (CURB), and a member of the DA Accountability Coalition, She founded Compassionate Companions, an organization within CIW that provides kindness and compassion to any incarcerated woman experiencing any catastrophic emotional event and provides vigils and care for terminally ill incarcerated women. She also founded and published the CIW newsletter, Strive High.

She advocates for prison abolition as well as dignity and compassion for all incarcerated individuals.

