Rapper Lil Twist Charged With Assault, Theft Stemming From Alleged Attack

The rap artist known as Lil Twist is scheduled to be arraigned today on assault and other charges in connection with an attack last November at a Miracle Mile apartment, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Christopher Lynn Moore (dob 1/11/93) was charged in case BA434241 with one count each of criminal threats, first-degree burglary, assault by means likely to produce great bodily injury, assault with a deadly weapon, grand theft and misdemeanor battery. He is expected to make his first court appearance today in Department 30 of the Foltz Criminal Justice Center.

Prosecutors said Moore attended a party in the 300 block of Hauser Boulevard on Nov. 7, 2014. When the victim asked Moore to leave, the defendant is accused of punching the man in the face at least twice.

Moore is accused of making a threat before leaving and he returned about 30 minutes later with four others. A fight ensued and two of the victim's belongings were allegedly stolen. The man was taken to a hospital for his injuries.

If convicted as charged, Moore faces up to nine years, 10 months in state prison.

The case is being investigated by the Los Angeles Police Department's Wilshire Division.
