Sheriff's Custody Assistant Charged With Having Unlawful Sex With Two Female Inmates

A Los Angeles County sheriff's custody assistant has been charged with having sex with two female inmates at the Century Regional Detention Facility in 2017 and 2018, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced today.

Roy'ce Bass (dob 12/20/90) was charged in case BA488330 with four counts of having sex with an adult confined in a detention facility. He is scheduled to be arraigned on November 13 in Department 30 of the Foltz Criminal Justice Center.

The case was filed for warrant on July 2.

Deputy District Attorney Rachel Greene of the Justice System Integrity Division is prosecuting the case.

On July 8, 2017, the defendant is accused of sexually assaulting a female inmate in her cell. Bass also allegedly had sex with another female inmate in January 2018.

If convicted as charged, the defendant faces a possible maximum sentence of five years in state prison.

The case remains under investigation by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department's Internal Criminal Investigations Bureau.
