Reality TV Personality Pleads to Resisting Arrest

A woman known for her role on the TV show “Teen Mom” entered a guilty plea today for an incident at the Beverly Hills Hotel, the Los Angeles County District Attorney’s Office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Peggy No said Farrah Laurel Abraham, 27, pleaded to one misdemeanor count of resisting, delaying or obstructing a peace officer.

Abraham was immediately sentenced to two years of summary probation and five days of community service or labor. She also was ordered to complete 12 hours of anger management and to stay away from the Polo Lounge in the hotel.

On June 13, Abraham got into a scuffle with a security guard who asked her to leave the lounge, the prosecutor said. Once police were called, the defendant refused to comply with their orders, the prosecutor added.

Case 8AR32335 was investigated by the Beverly Hills Police Department.
